The Retail IMT price will be x10 higher from the final price on the Token Sale, since it isn't limited and will increase in the future and will never be omitted lower than the Token Sale price.

The funds received from the Retail sale will be transferred to the Safety fund to secure the lenders' interests. Safety fund mechanism is explained in detail in our Whitepaper.

We will return funds if the soft cap will not be reached.

All unsold tokens will be burned.
